Called On to Explain.

These Papers Relate to That Remarkable Grading Work.

Cornellus Furgueson and his New Utrecht henchmen are promised some lively times within the next few weeks, as they are to be called upon to explain why certain records have mysteriously disappeared from the Kings County Clerk's office in Brooklyn.

Norman L. Dike, the Republican Supervisor of the First Ward, announced this morning that the matter would be taken to the courts. The records referred to are the reports of the Grading and Paving and Street-Opening Commisdoners of New Utrecht, which are necessary for the completion of the investigation into the accounts of Furgueson.

of Martin E. Yates.

Dr. Donlin Gave a Permit.

The body of Martin E. Yates, who. as old in yesterday's "Evening World," committed suickle in the Windsor Hotel, has not yet been taken to the home of his the morning papers. It lay this morning in a casket in the undertaking establishment of Graham & Sloan, 200 East Twenty-eighth street. The latter have no ide when it will be forwarded. awaiting the appearance of E. N. Bleu. Mile. Marguerite, an exceedingly clever ontortionist, made her first appearance of for Philadelphia last evening, saying he would be back to-day. The police in whose precinct the Windsor Hotel is located are indignant that they were not informed of the suicide, It was only when they read "The Evenntal any idea of it, although according to law the attempted suicide was discovered. Yates was found unconscious early on Sunday morning, and Dr. G. H. Bottum mediately summoned. The latter worked yesterday morning, when death took place. During all that time no word of any kind was sent to the police, and even when the man died the Coroner's office was not notified. In some manner word was sent t to the hotel, and, after reading a note usual permit for the removal of the body. The rest of the proceedings was in keeping with the policy of secrecy in keeping with the policy of secrety which every one connected with the case wanted to maintain.

When an "Evening World" reporter asked Dr. Bottum this morning why he had not notified the police when first called in to attend Yates, he said:

"If the man had attempted suicide by cutting his throat, shooting himself, or by jumping out of a window, I should have notified the police, but where pelson was taken, as in this case, it was my business to try to restore life. It don't see what the police had to may to it.

"Oh, yes; Dr. Donin reported the mase ter when he got back yesterday after noon."

Examination of the record-book showed, however, that the case had only been entered as having been reporte this morning. When the clerk's attention was called to this he got a little excited, and said:

"You will have to see Dr. Donlin. He will be able to explain everything, don't know anything about it."

Despatches from Chicago state in addition to what was published in "The Evening World" yesterday that Yates who was at one time a travelling sales man for Barker's Supply Company, of Chicago, generally stopped, when in this city, with Henry E. Dade, the Company's manager in this city. The office of Mr. Dade is at 237 Broadway. It was stated there, however, that he had left the city yesterday, and would not be back until Monday next.

GRIEVED FOR HER CHILDREN.

Then Mrs. Adelaide Stock Sent Bullet Into Her Brain. From worrying over the death of tw of her children, Mrs. Adelaide Stock thirty-five years old, of 368 East Eighti street, committed suicide at 11.30 o'clos last night by shooting herself. The two children died suddenly withis a few days of each other, in July. Mr. Stock, who is a paving inspector is the Department of Public Works, did all he could to comfort his wife, but she daily grew more and more melascholy.

A week ago Lena Muzbocher, a cossin, was called in to attend her. Last night Mrs. Stock went into the kitches while her husband and Mrs. Muzbocher were in a front room. A minute last they heard the sound of a shot, and hurrying into the kitchen, found Mrs. Stock lying on the floor, a revolve in her hand, and the blood flowing from a wound in her left temple. See had stood before a mirror to fire the fattal shot.

A physician, who had been hurriedly called, said that the builet had penetrated the brain, and that death was choly.
